

MOYNALTY STEAM THRESHING FARRIER COMPETITION 2025

Donore, Moynalty, Kells, Co Meath A82 C6K7

Judges

Mr Edward O'Shaughnessy AWCF

Mr William O'Shaughnessy AWCF

Format

Thursday 7th August 2025

Showgrounds open to competitors for camping.

Saturday 9th August 2025

Steam engines will run through the village of Moynalty to the showgrounds approx. 6PM. Drink and food will be available in the village and showgrounds.

Sunday 10th August 2025

Competition to begin at 9AM. Competitors not staying at the showgrounds are advised to arrive at least 30 minutes prior to class time, please allow extra time for traffic.

Classes

- Open shoeing
- Intermediate shoeing
- Two-person open shoemaking
- Apprentice shoemaking
- Eagle eye – open & apprentice

Prizegiving to be held at the showgrounds after the competition.

MOYNALTY STEAM THRESHING FARRIER COMPETITION 2025

Donore, Moynalty, Kells, Co Meath A82 C6K7

Open Shoeing

Time limit TBC

Competitors to make two shoes to the judges specification. One for the horses foot and one specimen. Fireman allowed/no striker.

Intermediate Shoeing

Time limit TBC

Open to those who have not placed 1st or 2nd in a shoeing competition.

Competitor to make two shoes to the judges specification. One for the horses foot and one specimen. Fireman allowed/no striker.

Two-Person Open Shoemaking

Time limit TBC

Competitors will be required to make two shoes, one each to the judges description. Stricker allowed.

Apprentice Shoemaking Class

Time limit TBC

Competitors will be required to make two shoes to the judges description. Please state what year apprentice you are as class will be divided into 1st/2nd year and 3rd/4th year, depending on number of entries.

Eagle Eye Class

Competitors is allowed 10 seconds to look at a foot and then 10 minutes to forge a shoe to fit to judges description class will be split into open/apprentice.